The Office of Training will assign subject individuals to the General Counsel's Office for a training period of approximately six months. At the end of this training period, it is our hope to have the said individuals permanently assigned to the Office of General Counsel.

2. It is understood that the above action is contingent upon subjects obtaining formal releases from their present offices although we have been advised informally by such offices that they will be released. When the releases are obtained, this office will take the appropriate action to have the subjects' personnel files released to the Office of Training.
